The background of the menu features a warm, golden-brown color palette. At the top left, there are several light blue snowflake icons of varying sizes. The main background is a soft-focus photograph of a table set for afternoon tea, showing a tall glass of champagne, a glass of water, and a wooden tiered stand filled with various pastries, breads, and small cakes. The text is overlaid on this background in a mix of elegant cursive and bold, black, sans-serif fonts.
